- 1 I completed this program largely due to the encouragement, advice and support of Dr. Henriksen. She exemplifies what a doctoral-level professor should be: kind, responsive and always there for you.
- 2 I cannot say enough good things about Dr. Henriksen. She was incredible to work with and I know that the entire LSC appreciated the additional time that she spent to ensure our success.
- 3 Dr. Henriksen is extremely helpful and gives high-quality feedback and support.
- 4 Best instructor at ASU. Without the doc I would not have graduated. Thank you so much!

1	This course gave me a good background for what the EdD program will be like.
2	There was a huge breadth of knowledge in this class. Thank you.
3	The content increased my level of understanding terms and systems in education and was highly relevant to my particular field.
4	I may not draw on all of the theories and ideas presented in the course, but each of them has made me think about either my dissertation or other aspects of my worklife.
5	I had previous experience in education administration and this course really helped me map out a trajectory and where system change can be had in my institution.

1	Tough reading load in 7.5 weeks
2	The difficulty arises mostly from the pace. Having to rush through so much content definitely lowers the quality of works we turn in.
3	The course was challenging, but it was not overly difficult.
4	The course content provided a high level of difficult, but the instructors provided enough support to make achieving the learning outcomes possible.
5	The content was just rigorous enough to be challenging in some respects.
6	I don't think difficult is the right word, so I am not sure how to answer it. Yes, it required effort, and it could be a challenge. No, it wasn't easy, though some of the readings and concepts were more readily grasped than others. I just don't think difficult describes the effort fairly since it makes it sound as if it would be wrong for the effort to have been needed.

1	This was a very intense course, but I feel that I can handle to challenge.
2	I was dubious about the observation journal activity and discussions at first, fearing that they would be busy work and not worth the effort. In the case of the latter especially, however, I found them immensely valuable.
3	I was able to see a direct correlation between the effort I put in and the learning acquired.

1	Very well designed asynch online course. Intentional progression and collaborative structures supported co-construction of knowledge throughout. Small assignments contributed to larger assignments. Thoughtful alignment with other course in TEL program. Prompt and substantive feedback given throughout.
2	Thanks for a great class!
3	I hope to have the opportunity to work with Danah in future courses! I very much enjoyed the structure of this course, as well as Danah's communication and teaching style.
4	I felt supported throughout the entire semester. Every question I had was answered on time and every assignment was returned was constructive feedback.
5	Excellent course! I really enjoyed expanding my understanding of systems and appreciate the thoughtful effort that Stephanie and Danah put into every aspect of our learning experience.
